LOUISVILLE JOURNAL.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY J. H. GILMAN, AT THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL OFFICE, 100 N. 3RD ST., LOUISVILLE, KY.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1889.

LOCAL BUDGET.

MANY THINGS OF MANY KINDS.

The General Council adjourned last night until January 2d.

We are informed that the Louisville Courier will in future publish a paper on Sunday instead of Monday.

Skiff and Gaylord's Minstrels commence their "burnt cork" season in this city at the Weigher Hall next Monday evening.

Some one has suggested that the pews in our churches should be provided with beds for the benefit of sleep visitors.

The Christmas shoppers were more numerous than ever yesterday.

Our streets and stores were thronged morning, noon, and night.

The third annual children's ball of the Concordia Club will take place on Monday evening next. It will be an occasion of great joy to the little children and their parents.

For the past few days there has been a perfect rush on our hotels from Frankfort. Twenty-six members of the Legislature arrived at the Willard Hotel yesterday.

Miss Fanny Morgan Phelps continues as the reigning star at the Louisville Theater. She is drawing pretty good audiences.

The programme for to-night is in every way worthy of the usual fashionable turnout.

About dark last evening it commenced sleeting, but very soon the drops became liquid, and, as we write, half-past eleven, we are being favored with a good old-fashioned rain, which bids fair to come down for several hours.

From this date until the close of the holidays, Messrs. W. & Moore, at their old stand in the Central Market, will have on hand a fresh supply of mince-meat. It is prepared by Mrs. Dick Moore, and is a proverbially superior article.

The Kentucky Legislature adjourned yesterday at noon, after the session of yesterday, thus giving the members an opportunity to specify about the battle of New Orleans on the floors of the Senate and House, if they (the members) feel so inclined.

Our old and genial neighbor of the Drama Saloon, Mr. Tom Tindall, is now snugly established in his new quarters at the Louisville Hotel. Any of the Louisville fraternity who may be "hankering after" good things in that line will find Mr. T. prepared to mix it up for them in the finest style.

An entertainment of a most pleasing character will be given at St. Louis Hall to-night by the children who attend school there under the care of the Sisters of Charity. The proceeds of the exhibition are to be devoted to the support of the school. Let the children have a large audience.

Among the notable names registered at the Louisville Hotel yesterday were Colonel L. B. Grigsby, of Lexington; Judge R. K. Williams, of the Court of Appeals; E. A. Routh, of the Central Kentucky, Versailles; B. W. Halleck, of the Bourbon Democrat, Paris; and General Wm. Scott Smith and family, of Chicago.

A few days since three negroes were elected aldermen for the town of Gallatin, Tennessee. Their names are Willis Motley, Columbus Johnston, and one Needless—all are needles, as well as motley, by the way. The vote stood: Radical, 152; Conservative, 39. Needless had been a resident of Gallatin only three weeks prior to the election, and owned no property.

Captain Henry Foster, arrested on suspicion of having set fire to the stables in Jeffersonville, that were destroyed last Tuesday night, had a trial before the Mayor of that town yesterday. He resulted in his honorable discharge. He was defended by Colonel Tom Gibson, of Louisville. The accused established an irreproachable character, and the prosecution was proven to have been purely malicious.

Rev. Calvin Fairbank, the Northern schoolmaster who was imprisoned seventeen years in Kentucky for assisting slaves in gaining freedom, and who was released about three years ago, during the three days' administration of Lieut. Gov. Jacob, in the absence of Governor Bramlette, is at present residing in New York. The Tribune calls him the "living martyr." Since his liberation Mr. F. has been prostrated by the reaction, but he now anticipates entering the ministry. The story of his life when he secured this world's goods were by his spent in prison, and he is necessarily in debt. To extricate himself from embarrassment, he is delivering, as a lecture, a summary of his forthcoming volume.

LOUISVILLE CITY COURT.—This tribunal did quite a "small business" yesterday morning.

Carrie E. Gill, Ann Brown, and Alice Ward were arraigned for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, but got off scot-free.

Dan Merrigan and Richard Anderson, accused of destroying the property of Belle Bardine, were discharged, and recognized to go before the Grand Jury.

Dan Merrigan and James Wheeler, arrested on a peace warrant, were discharged, and the complainant required to pay the costs.

Charles Hamilton, assault and battery upon August Beeler; $100 bond to answer Grand Jury.

Kate Donnelly, charged with stealing from Phil Duperay, was discharged.

John McDermott, assault and battery upon John A. Mendel, with intent to kill; held to bail in $500 and continued until Wednesday. When his lady-love called to see him he offered to release her from her promise on account of being a cripple. The noble-hearted young lady refused this offer, and will, after Brohm is well, become his faithful partner for life.

VERY TOUCHING INCIDENT.—Some days ago we reported that Mr. Frank Brohm, the driver for Vagt, Vogt, & Co.'s brewery, was so unfortunate as to smash the two first fingers of his left hand. Mortification of the parts has set in, and this forenoon at 9 o'clock Dr. Brandeis, Grant, and Givens will amputate the hand. Mr. Brohm is engaged to a handsome young lady and was to have been married last Wednesday. When his lady-love called to see him he offered to release her from her promise on account of being a cripple. The noble-hearted young lady refused this offer, and will, after Brohm is well, become his faithful partner for life.

DICK MOORE, Corner J. C.

LOUISVILLE SHOOTING CLUB.—An organization of this club was effected yesterday by the election of the following named officers:

Elmer D. Lawrence, President.

Clarence J. Prentice, Secretary.

Isaac H. Tyler, Treasurer.

CITY AFFAIRS.

MEETING OF THE COUNCIL LAST NIGHT.

The City Council convened in regular session at the city hall last night, and proceeded to business as follows:

COMMUNICATIONS.

A number of communications from the Mayor and Street Commissioners, concerning the improvement of divers streets, alleys, &c., were referred to the proper committees.

The Wharfmaster's report for the week ending Saturday the 14th inst. was filed, and shows the following recapitulation: Total receipts, $656.32; commissions, $71.71; repairs, $72.

PETITIONS.

Mrs. Rebecca Rowan filed a petition asking a reduction of the assessment of taxes on certain property belonging to her showing that said property was valued beyond its real worth. Referred to the Committee on Assessments.

The President of the Louisville Furniture Manufacturing Company filed a petition asking the release of the additional tax of ten percent assessed for the failure on the part of said Company to pay their taxes at the proper time, setting forth showing that said property was valued beyond its real worth. Referred to the Committee on Assessments.

REPORTS OF STREET COMMISSIONERS.

The Street Commissioners reported in favor of the allowance to the contractors, for improvements lately made on Market street, between Second and Third, of $2,463.97.

Said Commissioners also reported in favor of $568.65 to contractors for work done at the intersection of Market and Second and Third streets.

The Commissioners further reported in favor of divers small claims, all of which, with the foregoing reports, were approved by the Board.

RESOLUTIONS.

A resolution was proposed and adopted instructing the Mayor to forward to the Kentucky Senators and Representatives in Congress a copy of the resolutions adopted by a mass meeting of the native and adopted citizens of the United States in this city on the 17th inst., and asking said Senators and Representatives to insist upon the enforcement of the laws intended for the protection of citizens of the United States in foreign countries.

A resolution was proposed, and adopted, to the effect that the city shall not be required to pay any part of the expenses of repairs, and about the Court-house, unless such shall be required by law, unless said payment be authorized, before the work is done, by order of the General Council.

An adjourning resolution to the effect that when the Council adjourns it be to the 24th of January, 1890, was adopted.

JOINT SESSION.

Both Houses met in joint session for the purpose of electing Market masters. The result of said election was as follows:

J. F. Randolph was elected for the Shelby-street Market-house, No. 1.

Wm. Steele was elected for the Preston-street Market-house, No. 2.

Edward Wilkinson was elected for the Falls City Market-house, No. 3.

Wm. Teeter was elected for the Boone Market-house, No. 6.

Horace Davis was elected for the Portland Market-house, No. 7.

The joint session then rose. Some other business of minor importance was transacted, concerning claims, &c., and the Council then adjourned.

MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN TOWN.

The following Senators and Representatives, of the Kentucky Legislature, registered their names yesterday at the Willard Hotel:

Wm. H. Murray, Ky.

A. B. Bradley, of Madisonville.

A. H. Hodge, of Glasgow.

Wm. H. Bush, of Frankfort.
